

Handout 2/b

- 1 What structure do the coordinations in (36) and (37) suggest
- 2 What determines the order of the assemblage
- 3 What is the difference between complement and adjunct in terms of assemblage
- 4 How are adjunct/complement represented
- 5 What does the diagram in (41) show
- 6 What type of expressions are head/complement/adjunct and verb/VP/preposition/PP etc.
- 7 What is the difference between unacceptability and ungrammaticality
- 8 What is the difference between complement and adjunct in terms of position
- 9 What does deductive methodology consist in with respect to phrase structure

TERMS

adjoin ~ adjunct, (right/left) adjunction, branch, binary branching, Binary Composition Hypothesis, complement, dislocate(d), dominate, generate, head, Head Hypothesis, landing site, node, predicate, project(ion), select(ion), transitive V, unacceptable, ungrammatical(ity)